

An illustration of an eagle with its wings spread wide, perched on a rocky outcrop. The eagle has a white head and neck, a yellow beak, and brown body feathers. Small, colorful petals (pink, purple, green) are falling around it against a blue sky with white clouds. The entire image is framed by a yellow border.

Mary Jo Santoro Superintendent - Director

Dear Class of 2012,

Many will travel different roads as you move to the next stage in your life. Regardless of what path you take, you are now young adults and should take this responsibility seriously. As you venture into this world, I urge you to always respect the feelings of others, and though differences may exist, respect those differences. I ask that you promote respect for others, kindness, compassion, and the strength of character which will allow you to choose the courageous path.

Throughout your life, you will be faced with choices. Your choices will impact the different directions you go based on what you decide not only today, but every other day for the rest of your life. The decisions you make will define who you are. There will be times when you must decide to speak up when the faint hearted will not, or act decisively when others, afraid of the consequences to themselves, will not act at all. We, as parents and educators, hope that we have instilled in you the ability to know right from wrong and act according to your conscience and not mere convenience.

Let your conscience be your guide to what is right. You have been taught to voice your beliefs and stand firm on your personal convictions, whatever they might be. Force yourself to ask the questions you never asked before; dig deeper into your life. It is not always easy to make the right choice, it takes a special kind of person to stand for what is just and I believe you are just that type of young adult.

Class of 2012, as you begin your new venture, I ask you to please take a moment to think back on the people and events that have shaped the last four years for you. Your families, your teachers, your friends, and your experiences have all helped you reach this point. You have been well prepared to meet life; however, just as it was you who reached your goal here tonight, it is you who holds the keys to your own future success. With planning, perseverance, and hard work as your guiding principles, you will meet them all with grace and strength, and accomplishing great things will be your reward. We are all proud; be proud yourselves.

Congratulations Class of 2012. Thank you and good luck.

Anime Club

Where they know anime, play Anime games...

draw Anime, and yeah, you know the deal. The Anime club usually has some snacks and munchies. Parts of the details involve some fundraisers or merely sometimes involving certain occasions. The Anime club nearly every year, goes to an Anime intervention called anime Boston. To be honest, sometimes, some students love to cosplay. Plus, they are socializing group of teens. The Anime club loves to draw, play video games, act, etc. That is what I call a mmmmmmmmmmm... lively bunch. They are experts at drawing, video games, and more!

Business Professionals of America

Preparing bright, talented individuals...

for a bright and better future. Taking kids like you and me and molding them into the next leaders of America. Students get to show off their knowledge, skills, and their competitive spirit, while gaining leadership skills. To top it off they get recognition and gain confidence for all of their hard work!

Debate Club

Who are these future politicians?

This debate club of ours is part of an organization called the JSA (Junior Statement of America). Hardley Lacombe, Summer Pacheck, and Stephanie Maille made their tribute to the Debate club plus, all other students did too. Fall State was the autumn debate, which gave them three gavels for their great triumph. All in all, there are strong speakers in the debate club and they might be still running the political course.

Drama Club

Drama! Drama! Drama!

One of the top-notch social activities the school has to offer. Along with loads of acting practices and dress rehearsals, they are merely good on stage. They are quite good actors and actresses in my opinion. I mean yes, they perform for OUR amusement... but I say they do have the talent for it. Do I expect for them to just act like zombies... NO! To be or not to be, that would be the definite question for the drama actors.

Environmental Green Club

This Tree-Lovers Society...

It is basically a club for tree lovers and tree huggers. They helped save thousands of trees from destruction. Our "GREEN" Heroes!!! Do I expect a lot from them? NO! But they are a worthy community at first rate. If I need to say anything else... it's this... GOOD LUCK trying to save the world's trees, GREEN HEROES!

National Honor Society

An Honor Indeed!

The National Honor Society is of course, one of the most important groups in the student activities category. All hail the kings of our society! Anyway, this society has been working a lot on most things including the thanksgiving road race, and wrapping gifts for the AHWS (Alternative House Womans' Shelter). Teamwork is their way of progressing. Planning, preparing, and conducting induction ceremonies for new members and orchestrating community service events, is there anything they can't do?

Newspaper Club

Extra! Extra! Read the Description!

The Newspaper Club has quite an eye for fresh news. If you've read The Gryphon Globe... good for you. I have some good news for you... this committee went green this year by replacing the hard copy paper with online copies. What an impressive bunch of tree huggers. The following reporters are Sasha Silva, Megan Fitts, Queren Lima, and Jessica Hernandez, and Mario Antonetty. This committee is one of the major corner stone's of student communication. GRYPHON GLOBE!!! YES! YESSSS!!!!

Robotics Club

Take me to some EXPERTS

Robotics, what can you say? They are a student activity who builds robots. And no, not the terminator, or those huge mecha robots like the transformers... NO! A robot who fits for the quality of robo-battles might be their type of icing on the robotics club cake. Or yet, they build robots and/or programs for their own amusement.

Outing Club

Explorers of our school.

They were the ones whom climbed Mt. Wachusett, and also have explored an aquarium. There are rare types of fishes. Boy, do go on a lot of adventures. They might be the field trip club of our school. I mean, how can you argue with their logic on their lives outside of school (meaning the trips)? And I want to say that if they'd climbed to the top on success mountain, they are a group of top-notch explorers.

Yearbook Club

Memories, Snapshots, Actual Proof...

You got it! This yearbook committee plans and organizes this yearbook for you. We do have brilliant minds within this committee. Photographers, and ace snapshot artists, Jessica Hernandez and Cena. Our creative geniuses, yearbook cover design winner, Wendy Tim, and Lisa Oun. And our eagle eye, proof writers, Jay Mojica, and Patrick Chieh. Thank you to Brady McCarron, Jessica Arujo, Andie Vega, Justin Dowdy, Jessica and Ashli for their cooperation in helping throughout the year. This is proof to all, in which provides us the opportunity to surprise YOU, the reader who is looking at this page. Strange isn't it?

A Farewell to Seniors

A farewell to the seniors,
Four years ago we came here and prepared to go,
And now that time has come, it's time to share what we know,
Freshman year was the newest,
Learning the building and getting use to being the youngest of them all,
The best advice coming in to this school, was to always stand tall,
If you have a question ask, never be afraid,
Because help was always there, and time was always made.
Sophomore year was bold,
It was time to explore and break through our shell,
And as time went on we all listened closely for the bell,
Excited to roam the halls and see all our new friends,
Never knowing that in two years, it would all come to an end.

Junior year was the breaking point,
When reality finally hit us, this was our last full year,
Every kid in here knew it was exciting and was also full of fear,
Until one day we realized, we'd never get to do this again,
And before our very eyes, high school started to fly by.

Senior year was the final step,
Senioritis would kick in and last term it was time to try,
Because once we walk the stage it's time to say goodbye,
Teachers smiling near, parents standing proud,
Climbing up those stairs, facing a big applauding crowd.

We walk tall to center stage to shake the superintendent's hand,
All eyes are on us and strongly there we stand,
Look into the camera and get ready to smile,
We talked about this moment for a very long while,
And now it is here the end is almost near,
Looking out into the crowd seeing everyone starting to tear,
I close my eyes and take a long blink,
And right there I started to think,
Of everyone there that helped us through,
If there is one thing we all could say,
I'm absolutely positive it would be a big thank you.

- Nicole Fitzpatrick

I realized that it was your motivation and perseverance that got you here in the first place, why would you need my help now? You know what you've gone through to get here. So take a moment and congratulate yourself, because it is your day to shine.

Valedictorian - Amber Noble

Class of 2012: The pursuit of happiness is our right and it's important that we take advantage of it, so be happy, smile, and thank the world for at least one good thing, no matter how miniscule every day.

Our time here has been an adventure I'm sure none of us will forget. The triumphs and the losses. The laughs and the tears. The people new and old. On behalf of the class of 2012, "We will miss you, Greater Lowell."

*If you went from frightened to fearless throughout high school, it is bound to happen again. Every day life brings challenges and triumphs where sometimes we will be scared,
and sometimes we will be brave.*

Salutatorian - Amanda Cordero

Everyone that is sitting down in front of me tonight has dreams, and may the odds be ever in your favor. Good luck Class of 2012!
